ORDER

December 28, 2012

TAURO, J.

In its Oppositions [#307], [#326], the United States argues that an evidentiary hearing is not necessary for the pending motions to suppress. This court requests that Defendants John Willis, Brant Welty, Michael Clemente, and Bridget Welty file responses to the government's argument regarding the necessity for an evidentiary hearing by January 3, 2013, at 1:00 p.m.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
